Corvair Aficionados, check this out. This video boasts of Chevrolet's vast superiority over other makers' 1962 models. The half-hour video shows comparison test after test, and how Chevrolet always comes out on top. The Corvair vans make their appearances toward the end. Then there is an amusing Old West story of how the Corvair was outnumbered by the bad guys – Valiant, Falcon, Comet, etc – and made a quick getaway over rough terrain:
